

Jignesha Fofandi is the Company Secretary and oversees legal and compliance functions of the Company. She joined the organization in April 2026. A qualified Company Secretary, she brings experience in corporate governance, regulatory compliance, and legal advisory.

Prior to joining the Company, she was associated with Chetana Education Limited, where she served as Company Secretary & Compliance Officer and contributed to its listing on the National Stock Exchange of India. With hands-on experience across SEBI, ROC, and Companies Act compliances, IPO processes, and contract management, she plays a key role in ensuring adherence to corporate laws while supporting the Board and management in governance and decision-making.